

WEBINAR

Harnessing the engagement of veterinary services with private sector for collective action against dog-mediated rabies in Africa

Time (GMT)	Agenda Item	Presenter
09:00	Welcome and online introductions	Lillian Wambua (WOAH)
Session 1: Private-public-partnerships at global level
Moderator: Tenzin Tenzin (WOAH)
09:10	Official welcome and objectives of the webinar	Karim Tounkara (WOAH)
09:10	Public-private engagement and partnerships in the veterinary domain and their value in rabies elimination	Rahul Srivastava (WOAH)
09:20	Fostering global partnerships towards zero by 30: Spotlight on the United Against Rabies initiative	Rachel Tidman (WOAH)
09:30	WOAH vaccine bank: Harnessing global partnerships to support access to quality vaccines for prevention of rabies	Rachel Tidman (WOAH)
09:40	Turning research into action: Evidence-based planning for rabies control	Maurice Karani (Worldwide Veterinary Service - WVS)
09:50	Question and Answer session
Session 2: Public-private partnerships and engagement in practice
Moderator: Serge Mpouam (WOAH)
10:10	Bridging the public and private veterinary workforce to strengthen rabies elimination in Africa	Nick Lang'at (Kenya Veterinary Association)
10:20	Public-private engagement and partnership in practice: Experiences from Namibia	Reinhold Haimbodi (Namibia)
10:30	Public-private engagement and partnership in practice: Experiences from Cameroon	Sandrine Tenne Kene, (Cameroon)
10:50	Discussion: Opportunities to leverage public-private engagements for collective action against rabies in Africa
11:20	Closing remarks	Karim Tounkara (WOAH)